CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of the Study

The issue of gender discrimination is one which has been publicly reverberating through society for decades. In ancient society, women had lower position than men. In past, women were just as mother, wife, and house holder. They did not have opportunity to show their capability and ability in the society. It will come about in time, women begin to rebel. They want to be in a line degree with man. They do various ways to show that women are not passive. They can do all activities as men can. All actions about women opposition towards discrimination are often seen in life everyday. Women oppositions towards discrimination uplift women degrees and equate with men degrees. Many of scientific works or a films show the woman oppositions towards discrimination.

The usual phenomenon in ancient America in 1953 was traditional structure. In 1953, America tradition stated belief that schooling of girls in that time was persistently influenced by the dominant ideologies regarding the role of women wider society. The dominant ideal upheld by the middle classes for women were good wife and mother, so girls were offered a curriculum that would make them attractive in marriage market.

Loaded. This movie was released in June 24, 2005 (USA). The duration of this movie is around 101 minutes and the budget of movie is $ 50.000.000. This movie has a good story. The story tells about the struggle of woman to get equality to be a racer. This movie is produced by Walt Disney Pictures starring Lindsay Lohan alongside Michael Keaton, Matt Dillon, Breckin Meyer and Justin Long. The movie features many NASCAR drivers, including Jeff Gordon, Jimmie Johnson, Tony Stewart, Dale Earnhardt Jr., Mark Martin, and many. It is the first theatrical Herbie film since Herbie Goes Bananas in 1980. It is also one of the very last movies to be released to the home video market in the VHS videotape format, which would eventually be entirely phased out and replaced with DVD. The movie is written by Thomas Lennon. The music of movie is by Mark Mothersbaugh. Cinematography is by Greg Gardiner. Editing is by Wendy Greene Bricmont, Studio Walt Disney Pictures. And it is distributed by Buena Vista Pictures. There are many movie awards such as at the 2006 Kids' Choice Awards, Lindsay Lohan won Favorite Female Actress the movie was also nominated for Favorite Movie. At the 2005, Teen Choice award nominated for Choice Movie Actress: Comedy Lindsay Lohan, Choice Summer Movie (Ringel Eleanor. 2005)

Responses of the audience are various. Peter says this movie is an instant classic. It captures the fun spirit of the original moves. "I felt like very little time has passed and the some magic was present in this movie. It's was funny, zany, cute and endearing". Another response comes from Beth, she said “I don’t understand why the general public and professional critics are rating it so low. Its kid’s movie and likewise one has to have the correct mind-set when viewing it. I was swept away from the beginning and it kept me engaged. So many other movies these days various flaws that keep coming to mine when you watch them, this movie it just fine. This movie was directed by the good director woman, she is Angela Robinson”.

Angela Robinson was born on February 14, 1971 in San Francisco, California. She is an American film director, and graduated from Brown University and New York University. Angela Robinson is a lesbian and frequently deals with gay and lesbian topics in her films. There are many movies are produced by Angela Robinson. She has directed an award winning short film D.E.B.S. (2003) and a feature length film D.E.B.S. (2004 film), Herbie Fully Loaded (2005), The L Word (2006), Fabulous! The Story of Queer Cinema (2006), Girltrash (2007), and other work by Angela Robinson (Warn, Sarah. 2006).

Herbie Fully Loaded has Lindsay Lohan as the major actress and gets the character as Margaret Payton (Maggie). Maggie is a woman that has a dream become a racer. She is from racer’s family. Her grandfather, father and the elder brother are racer. She feels to be discriminated by her father. Her father permits her elder brother to be a racer because he is a man. While Maggie is not permitted because she is woman. In fact she has a big talent to be racer. When Maggie graduates from her school, her father gives a car, VW Herbie 53. This car is formerly a very famous race car. This car is old so it has been thrown away. Maggie with her friend Kevin changes the form of Herbie, so it makes Herbie more interesting and stronger to be involved in the race. Maggie joins the race and she wants to win the prize $10,000, she does not make her family know in order to join the race. She camouflages as a named Maxx. From the first race, Herbie eliminates the rival in the race. The best rival is Trip Murphy. Before latest match, Murphy detects that Maggie is a woman. Then he announces to audience and jury about in that competition Maggie joins in the race. Later she is forbidden and disqualified. It makes father and her elder brother are startled. Maggie rebels her father because her father discriminates her with the elder brother. It is just because Maggie is a woman. Her father explains that he does not want to lose Maggie. Formerly the mother was died when join a race and her father also think that race is dominated by men because men have a stronger physic than women have.

When her elder brother practices a qualification in NASCAR race and gets an accident, he then suggests to his father that Maggie continues the race. In final, Maggie succeeds in getting the prize and can prove to her father that she has talent as a racer.

Based on the fact, writer is interested in studying this movie. There are four reasons for this. Firstly, it tells about discrimination for woman. In this movie, Maggie is discriminated by her father. Her father does not admit Maggie to be a racer because she is a woman. He may permit her elder brother because he is a man who has a stronger physic. Secondly, this film is unique. With her old car VW Herbie 53, she wins NASCAR race successfully. Thirdly this film reflects feminism. Maggie has experienced discrimination, she is not permitted to be racer by the father because Maggie is a woman, and her father does not want to lose the daughter. Fourthly, this film is acted by Lindsay Lohan who is very pretty and has good acting. At this film, Lindsay Lohan gets an award as best artist in year 2006.

Gender discrimination and sexism refer to beliefs and attitudes in relation to the gender of a person, such beliefs and attitudes are of a social nature and do not, normally, carry any legal consequences. Sex discrimination, on other hand, may have legal consequences. Hence, writer uses feminism theory as an approach to analyze Herbie Fully Loaded which movie shows discriminations to women.
