Like most universities as educational institutions have a wide range of fittings Semarang police academy to be met, such as curriculum, educational facilities, as well as administrative support in the learning process both in the classroom and outside the classroom (field), keep in mind that learning in Semarang police academy include educational approaches through the method of learning, training and care.

Education pattern developed Police Academy certainly will not be maximized if it is not followed by developing capabilities in the areas of administration to be followed by development of educators and the institutions themselves. Knowledge and skills that carried long-term aim is to develop scientific and administrative personnel who have studied and practiced in the educational process. Administration is necessary for the continuity of the learning process in education. All is not separated from active people who master in education administration. People often think of easy administration, but if the administration is held by those who are less skilled then the administration will not be maximized. The person holding the administration is the one who’s trained in the art (people who have knowledge / training). Administration not only in financial terms but also in neatness / order our books. Administration is not only done in a certain time but every day continuously. Administration is an effort to make the activities of cooperation between lecturers and staff for teaching and learning process more effective.

Administration is one component of education, one of the tools of education administration is administration. Educational administration is defined as the integration of art and science of creative ideas, materials, and people in an organic unity, or unit that works in harmony to achieve the expected goal, but in practice, especially in Indonesia, the term administration of education is more popular and more frequently used, because there is a tendency to interpret the school administration in the narrow sense that is equated with administration school. Siagian (1992:2) suggests the administration is “the whole process of cooperation between two people or more, based on a certain rationality to achieve predetermined goals."

Educational administration is very supportive for the achievement of the goals of education, every personnel in educational institutions is required for mastering and understanding of educational administration, to enhance the effective and efficient working and able to appreciate the work ethic of fellow personal education, so that will create harmony, comfort which can lead to pride and a sense of having good school citizens and residents of surrounding communities.
