ABSTRACT

Hensdika Putra Artdwi Firmansyah / A320160222. THE CLASS REVENGE REFLECTED IN HARRISON'S THE SILENT WIFE: AN FEMINIST APPROACH. Essay. Faculty of Teacher Training and Education, Muhammadiyah University of Surakarta. January 6, 2021

This study focuses on identifying the issue of revenge that originates from an affair between a husband and a daughter of a close friend in the novel The Silent Wife. The theory used in this research is a feminist approach. This type of research used in this research is descriptive qualitative. This study uses data collection methods using note taking techniques. This study uses two data, namely primary data, books, literature books, websites, articles, author bibliographies and virtual references related to the issue of massacres as secondary data. This study aims, among other things, to identify the level of infidelity from time to time that is committed and described in conflict, to explain how the issue of infidelity is depicted in the novel and to reveal the reasons the author raises the issue of infidelity. The results of this study include (1) there are several definitions of infidelity in a relationship, (2) the author describes the issue of infidelity in the novel The Silent Wife, (3) the writer raises the issue of infidelity because the author experiences a true story in life.

Keywords: A.H.A Harrison, Feminism Approach, Affair, Novel The SILENT WIFE.
