Kung Fu Panda's existence began when the panda (Po) has dream about master of Kung Fu, at the first part of the movie present about contrary of how the big fat panda can be a master of Kung Fu. In reality certain the big and fat no have ability in sport even in the Kung Fu. But behind of this the big fat Panda (Po) has potential Kung Fu that anybody did not know his ability, All of people know the ability of Po when he was chosen as a dragon warrior as the fear of jade palace by free of Tai lung. At the first time Po surprised because has been chosen to be dragon warrior by point of master Oogway but master Shi Fu and the five did not agree that panda has Kung Fu ability because panda is big and fat that contrary with Kung Fu master in general. In fact master Shi Fu and the five was wrong, they need to believe can train panda. Believing is one important thing to reach goal. In the fact panda could train well by unique stimulus that is food, it means each people is unique, they has specialty in their talent and how to improve it, and they just need to believe on it. Finally panda can be Kung Fu master and have the right to receive dragon scroll. Surprisingly when po opens the dragon scroll he finds blank scroll just the mirror of his face actually blank scroll adapts the philosophy come from china that is Tao and Buddhism. The highest level in the Tao view and Buddhism is blank, someone could go to nirvana if he has got zero level, and the lever here is nothing. At the same time Po need a time to understand what's the meaning the scroll. Po can reach the meaning when his father explains the secret ingredient soup was nothing that is adapt in the dragon scroll are someone become special if they think they are special. Finally Panda can defeat Tai lung by the Wuxi finger-hold.

the film "consistently diverting" and "visually arresting". Chris Barsanti of Filmcritics.com commented, "Blazing across the screen with eye-popping, sublime artwork, Kung Fu Panda sets itself apart from the modern domestic animation trend with its sheer beauty, the film enters instant classic status as some of the most gorgeous animation Hollywood has produced since the golden age of Disney. The Chicago Tribune called the film "one of the few comedies of 2008 in any style or genre that knows what its doing" (Rotten tomatoes Press release, 2009).

On other hand some people judge that this movie is significantly mock the symbol national of china, with the animated of panda than has green eye present the symbol of crossbar devil and Satanism, the good character shouldn't be reflected with symbol of crime like devil, then why the Panda's father is duck? Those were mocking the china's people. Many china's people think that panda not only china's symbol but also Panda is symbol of china's people so Po in the Kung Fu Panda was considered as mocking china's people and their country (Mahasampatti, 2009).

The film currently garners an 89% "Certified Fresh" approval rating from review aggregator Rotten Tomatoes. Kung Fu Panda opened in 4,114 theaters, grossing $20.3 million on its opening day and $60.2 million on its opening weekend, resulting in the number one position at the box office. DreamWorks Animation's Kung Fu Panda leads the field with 17 nominations out of 27 overall for the studio, including Best Animated Feature, and individual nominations for character animation, character design, directing, music, production design, storyboarding, voice acting and writing. Walt Disney Animation Studios and its Best Animated Feature “Bolt” received 9 nominations and Pixar Animation Studios and its Best Animated Feature “Wall-E” received 8 nominations. Completing the Best Animated Feature category is Sony Pictures Classics Waltz with Bashir and Sherman Pictures/Lama Films “$9.99” (Adams, 2008).

Kung Fu Panda has three points which make the researcher interested in this movie. The first is character of po itself, the character of po is contradict with reality. The character of po describes as big fat panda that many people know that big fat is not sporty and does not have talent to be master of Kung Fu. The contrary in this movie, panda could be master of Kung Fu by unique training stimulus, if the five trains with focus in the object, panda must focus on the food. It is becomes one important point that many people cannot reach their dream if they are did not belief on their self and that is depend on what they chose in this life.

The second is moral spiritual in this movie, first is the speech by Panda’s father that “The secret to be special is you have to believe you're special” po almost pessimist can understand the dragon scroll, but when his father give him advice that are the secret ingredient soup is nothing, the secret to be special is you have to believe you’re special” right after this Po understand to see the positive aspect of him If he think he is special, it is motivate him selves to do more.

The third is about the story Kung Fu Panda contributes plus score to this movie, the funny thing and joke construct perfectly make this movie fresh to watch. The art direction, the voices, the character animation, the comedy, the action scenes, the opening 2-D cartoon sequence, the heart it all works Beside funny and joke this movie build with the wise advice that can be understood easily in each scene. That point makes this movie successfully impressed by audience so they can comprehend the story fully based on the pole they were, and could make audience enjoy and receive the message easily in this movie.

Search for meaning of existence become an issue chosen by the researcher in this movie. All people always will face many choice in life, and will decide what they want to chose based their belief in their experience. Po as the one major character implies its phenomena, why the director chose Po that has performance big fat and gigantic panda as Kung Fu master in this movie, why the gigantic panda can defeat Tai lung that has strong performance, what does Po's existence mean? And the other hand why he receive blank dragon scroll, all aspect around Po (panda) can represent what the meaning existence and the choice in every part of life that builds by the director John Stevenson in Kung Fu Panda Movie.

Motivated by the fact mentioned above, the researcher is eager to explore the Message Existentialist that build in this movie entitled “SEARCH FOR MEANING OF EXISTENCE IN STEVENSON’S KUNG FU PANDA: EXISTENTIALIST PERSPECTIVE”.

B. Review of Previous Study

The writer has found other researcher, who can show the originality of the writer study

The essay entitled Belajar Dari Kungfu Panda, written by Hertanto M. (2008) In this essay, Hertanto argues about what is learned from Kung Fu Panda movie. The first point he presents one message that can be learned in kung fu panda movie that are the speech from Po's father The secret to be special is you have to believe you're special Po almost giving up when he can find the meaning from blank dragon scroll, the advice from his father make Po understanding what the intention of the dragon scroll itself that is Po will be special if he thinks he is special then he need to believe. Second point is catch the dream, Hertanto explains the negative thinking will block the dream as the example Po who has gigantic, hard to move can reach his dream because of his believe, and always look at the future like the Master Oogway said that yesterday is history, tomorrow is mystery and now is a gift, Third he proposed that someone can't train someone else before he believe the talent and ability that people. Fourth every individuality learn with their way, as like as the Shifu find the Panda could train by food, Panda could be same with the five, such as every child have different character because of their different experience so the training to the children can be same.

The researcher above is different from the writer here, because the data are different; while the essay written by Hertanto concern on the main messages in the Kung Fu Panda movie takes by his argument, its different from the researcher because the researcher try to find the meaning of life based on existentialism. The similarities of the first study are having same approach for analyzing that is existentialism approach. Than the second writer Hertanto takes Kung Fu Panda as his object that is same as the researcher.
